Travel Itinerary

George Mason 2017

TRAVEL SYNOPSIS

The end of the Fall Semester culminates with the George Mason University Patriot Games. This tournament is large, and is the first chance for the novice students to be on a travel trip. We are on a college campus, so there will be a lot of walking; remember that you must travel in groups. There are plenty of food options in the Johnston Center, which is our base of operations at the tournament.

Chaperone(s):

TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION

We are travelling via Charter Bus. Please meet Crawford at Kenan Auditorium at 2:25PM. We will leave the moment we have everyone. We will stop for dinner along the way. You'll leave from GMU as soon as we are finished on Sunday evening. Crawford will send out a blast with an ETA as soon as we have it. It is a late return because of Awards.

TEAM TRAVEL RULES

Students will arrive to meeting places on-time; they will notify a chaperone if they will be even 1 minute late to a meeting place. Students will have their cell phone on at all times (but silenced during rounds). They must check their phone in-between rounds to make sure no one is trying to contact them. Students may not leave the hotel premises without a chaperone, or leave your room past the curfew for each night. Lights out is 11:00PM. All rules, standards, and expectations in the Team Handbook and the Durham Academy All Student Handbook are in effect during travel. Students will ask Mr. Leavoy permission for anything of which they are unsure.
