Travel Itinerary

Harvard 2019

TRAVEL SYNOPSIS

The largest invitational of the year is the Harvard Debate Tournament. We are excited to return to the tundra that is Cambridge in February, and to have the opportunity to compete against some of the best debaters in the world (this truly is an international tournament). Being February in Boston, it's cold. You need to pack accordingly. We sometimes see wind chills of negative temperatures, and you must walk across campus. Scarves, jackets, hats and coats are a must.

Chaperone(s):

Crawford Leavoy (205) 746-1907

Cost per Student: $650

TEAM TRAVEL RULES

Students will arrive to meeting places on-time; they will notify a chaperone if they will be even 1 minute late to a meeting place. Students will have their cell phone on at all times (but silenced during rounds). They must check their phone in-between rounds to make sure no one is trying to contact them. Students may not leave the hotel premises without a chaperone, or leave your room past the curfew for each night. Lights out is 11:00PM. All rules, standards, and expectations in the Team Handbook and the Durham Academy All Student Handbook are in effect during travel. Students will ask Mr. Leavoy permission for anything of which they are unsure.
